Excellence in Training and Learning

Overview

This award is intended to recognize a response team that has shown the most commitment to the training requirements of ERAC. There will be one award for a Flammable Liquids response team and one for a LPG response team.

Eligibility

Recipients will be a response teams.

Nominations

ERAC's President and Managers will select the response teams which will receive this award.

Presentation

Two award response team recipients will be announced in April, and a formal presentation will be made during ERAC's National Training Forum in May 2017.

Criteria

Selection for this award will be based on (1) compliance with SafetySync online training requirements, (2) performance at their Regionals, (3) the amount and condition of equipment available for responses and (4) other factors (e.g. extra training undertaken, general level of preparedness, etc.).
